UNDERSTANDING YOUR RESOURCE POINTS on the ENNEAGRAM MAP

WITH CERTIFIED ENNEAGRAM TEACHER
SANDRA SMITH

SATURDAY, JUNE 4, 2022

9:30 AM-2:30 PM EASTERN TIME

8:30 AM-1:30 PM CENTRAL TIME

7:30 AM-12:30 PM MOUNTAIN TIME

TIMES INCLUDE A 30 MINUTE LUNCH BREAK.

This Enneagram workshop is shaped to deepen inner awareness by exploring the influence of our type's resource points (wings and connecting lines). Understanding these resource points allows us to grasp more fully the complexity and dynamics of the Enneagram as we place ourselves in a larger context within this system and within our own self-understanding.

What does it mean for a type Nine to work with the gifts of type Six, a connecting point? Perhaps the Nine engages the imagination more and asks hard questions. A type One accessing the gifts of type Four can take more time for reflection and self care, allowing for creative options to emerge. Each type's resource points can bring balance and reminds us that all we need is within.

Through self reflection with guided questions, breakout group discussions and didactic, participants will learn more of the inner dynamics of each type and how we can develop more of our hidden gifts.

The Enneagram Perspective Circle will be introduced after lunch with participants invited to bring an issue that they would like to see from different perspectives using the resource points.

This advanced workshop requires a working knowledge of your Enneagram type. This workshop will have limited enrollment so register early.

Cost is $100. Use this link to register and to pay:
