These little explored components of our ego structure, the inner soul child and the sub-vice, are unconscious and mighty operators in our daily living. The sub-vice is the vice of our security point or heart point. Ex. Gluttony is the sub-vice for Ones, Fear for Threes. More often than not, it drives the vice of our type, kicking it into high gear. You could say that it is the underbelly of our type's vice or passion.

Additionally, we'll consider the concept of the inner soul child as taught by Hameed Ali (Almaas) and Sandra Maitri. This inner soul child is discussed in Maitri's book The Spiritual Dimensions of the Enneagram and is not our inner child but a walled off part of ourselves that didn't develop.

During this two hour exploration we will

- Explore our passion or vice of our type and its dance with our sub-vice
- Discuss ways the inner soul child drives our behavior

Dyad inquiry exercises, self-reflection, and small group discussions will support our learning process.
